FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner is a resident of Racine County.
2. On March 19, 2014, an OT evaluation was completed by the Petitioner's provider, Health Dimensions Rehabilitation.

3. On April 7, 2014, a PA request was submitted by the Petitioner's provider for OT services and an OT evaluation.
4. On May 16, 2014, the agency approved the OT services for the Petitioner but denied the OT evaluation.
5. On June 26, 2014, an appeal was filed on behalf of the Petitioner with the Division of Hearings and Appeals.

DISCUSSION

Therapy providers are given 14 calendar days to submit a PA request following completion of an initial therapy evaluation to submit a PA request. In this case, the provider did not submit the PA request within 14 days of March 19, 2014.

The Wisconsin Administrative Code at §DHS 104.01(12) states:

When a service must be authorized by the department in order to be covered, the recipient may not be held liable by the certified provider unless the prior authorization was denied by the department and the recipient was informed of the recipient's personal liability before provision of the service. In that case the recipient may request a fair hearing. Negligence on the part of the provider in the prior authorization process shall not result in recipient liability.

At the scheduled time for the hearing in this case, the Petitioner's representative was contacted. She indicated that she did not wish to proceed with the hearing as she intended to discuss the matter with the provider and assert that she is not responsible for the evaluation based on the code section stated above.

Thus, there is no issue for determination by the DHA.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

There is no issue for determination.

THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

That the Petitioner's appeal is dismissed.

You may also appeal this decision to Circuit Court in the county where you live. Appeals must be served and filed with the appropriate court no more than 30 days after the date of this hearing decision (or 30 days after a denial of rehearing, if you ask for one).

For purposes of appeal to circuit court, the Respondent in this matter is the Department of Health Services. After filing the appeal with the appropriate court, it must be served on the Secretary of that Department, either personally or by certified mail.
